

CHANGING THE WORLD

Biographies

Read a biography of a person whose life interests you. Use the information you gather to complete these pages.

Book title _____

Author _____

HINT

As you read, you might want to keep a note card in your book so you can write down page numbers, names, and events that will help you answer the questions on page 97.

In the picture frame, draw a picture of the person you read about. Include details from the book (such as a distinctive hat, glasses, or piece of clothing).

CHANGING THE WORLD

Biographies

1. What did the person learn, practice, or enjoy doing as she or he was growing up?

2. What failures or struggles did this person have before he or she was successful?

3. What was this person's main accomplishment?

4. What does this person's accomplishment mean to you? How has it affected your life?

5. How has this person's accomplishment affected the world?
